WASHINGTON -- U.S. Rep. John W. Olver (D-1st District) announced today that President Cli

"This designation is going to provide the communities along the river well a path of economic re

"Back in 1994, I first spoke with Secretary Babbitt about the importance of such designations, a

"Since then, there have been so many people, organizations and legislators working together the In his 1997 State of the Union address, President Clinton announced the American Heritage R

The President and Vice President are in North Carolina today at the New River to formation under the American Heritage River initiative, a federal employee will be designated as a "River" in the resident clinton announced will be designated as a "River" when the communities along the river well a path of economic resident clinton and the resident clinton and the resident clinton and the resident clinton announced to the American Heritage River initiative, a federal employee will be designated as a "River" well a path of economic resident clinton announced of such designations, and the resident clinton announced to the American Heritage River initiative, a federal employee will be designated as a "River" well a path of economic resident clinton announced of such designations, and the resident clinton announced to the American Heritage River initiative, a federal employee will be designated as a "River" when the resident clinton announced to the resident clinton announced to the resident clinton announced to the American Heritage River initiative, a federal employee will be designated as a "River" when the resident clinton announced to the

###